

The Cancer Support Centre is a small local independent charity that delivers support to 100's of adults who are affected by cancer in the West Midlands.

Help us to help you showcase your skills and / or develop your career, at the same time as making a real difference to 100's of people

Required : Community & Business Engagement Team members

VOLUNTARY ROLE : We are offering a platform to showcase your skills and develop your career portfolio, and are looking for a number of high energy people to drive our Community and Business Engagement to the next level.

Based at: Initially working from home.

Time period : From a couple of hours a week ... upwards .. you choose

Your Role :

- Initially develop and implement a programme of Community and Business Engagement.
- Help to Identify target businesses
- Help to develop engagement strategy
- Help to develop and design marketing engagement materials
- Develop event templates and databases to enable the successful repetition of regular engagement strategies.

Team Main Purpose: To plan and implement a coherent and sustainable community business engagement and marketing programme for the Cancer Support Centre over the next 12 months initially.

Could you contribute any of these Skills Roles for the Team ? :

- Social Media – Facebook, Instagram, LinkedIn, Twitter. (We currently don't use Instagram and although we have twitter we don't tweet !)
- Relationship management
- Media production and / or Graphic Design
- Business sales

To Apply email Info@suttoncancersupport.org for more information or application form

The Cancer Support Centre is a small local independent charity that delivers support to adults who are affected by cancer in the West Midlands.

The changing environment has meant that we have had to approach fundraising and marketing in a whole new way. This is your chance to be instrumental in setting up a sustainable legacy and securing the future of a much loved local charity.